where she was built on Mattapoisett Neck. Word spread, person to person, and the large crowd gathered to see her take to the water.

This is the second launching this year for the Vaitses yard. Last fall a 48-foot lobster boat was completed with an open transom for the fast laying down and picking up of pots.

The Active was started in December. This sleek 48-footer was designed by Ray Hunt. She was built for Mr. and Mrs. Eugene W. Stetson, Jr. of Southport, Conn. Her homeport will be Padanaram although she will follow the New York Yacht regattas and will join the annual cruise of that group.

The launching at the Mattapoisett Boatyard on Ned's Point Road was set for 4 P.M. The crowd gathered and increased as the various last touches were completed. The twin screws were installed and the mahogany stern board was bolted on. The champagne was readied and Mrs. Stetson "walked the plank" to christen the new boat. Soundings of the water indicated that a wait was necessary. The Active slid down the railway at about 6 o'clock. She rode the choppy water beautifully and was towed to an anchorage off the wharf of the yard. She will remain there for the installing of her wall-to-wall carpeting and furniture. The craft will be a fast, comfortable tender for the Concordia "Windward" also owned by the Stetsons. She will accomodate seven people in three staterooms, has a shower, three heads and is equipped with the latest electronic navigational aids. The sweet underwater lines and twin diesels will enable her to cruise at 23 knots and reach a top speed of close to 30.

The Vaitses yard is starting another hull at the present time.

SCHOLARSHIPS PRESENTED

Presentation of the Raymond C. Hartley Scholarship awards by Mrs. Ethel Gary, president of the Rochester Woman's Club, was the highlight of the club's annual bazaar and supper on Thursday evening, June 20. Recipients were the Misses Eileen O. Alderson and Carol Arenberg, Rochester students.

The scholarship fund is supported by Rochester residents who subscribe to the community birthday calendar and purchase ads that appear on it. Twenty-seven Rochester students have benefited from the awards since the founding of the scholarship fund in honor of Raymond C. Hartley in 1945, nineteen years ago. This year the picture that appeared on the calendar was of Old Rochester Regional High School.

Miss Eileen O. Alderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert N. Alderson of Hartley Road, received the first award of $100. She has been accepted at the University of Massachusetts where she will major in English and is considering a career in journalism. She is a 1963 graduate of New Bedford High School and a member of the National Honor Society. Miss Alderson served as president of J A. Staff Reporters and as treasurer of the Latin Club. She was active in the American Field Service, Girl's League and as a cheerleader.

The second award of $50 was presented to Miss Carol Arenberg, daughter of Mr. Isaac M. Arenberg of New Bedford Road and the late Bernice W. Arenberg. She has been accepted at Boston University School of Nursing and plans to obtain a B.S. degree in Nursing. Miss Arenberg is a 1963 graduate of Old Rochester Regional High School and a member of the National Honor Society, serving as vice-president for the Old Rochester Chapter. She served as secretary of the Student Council. Her other activities have included Traffic Squad, Glee Club, Craft Club, Dramatic Club, Future Nurses Club, Girls' State and Betty Crocker Future Homemakers, for which she received an award. Carol also served as school representative to the Old Rochester Chapters of the American Field Service and Citizen's Scholarship Fund. While attending B. U. she hopes to live in a cooperative house for students. Her other interests are music, sewing and knitting.

Both girls were high ranking students and have been awarded several other scholarships.

The clubhouse was attractively decorated under the direction of Mrs. Marian Church and her committee. Gorgeous peonies and roses were used on the long dining tables which seated over a hundred persons. Mrs. Greenwood Hartley and Mrs. Everett L. Hardy were co-chairmen of the popular smorgasbord featuring a wide variety of delicious homecooked dishes, topped off with strawberry dessert and coffee.

Mrs. Alphonse Raymond and Mrs. Timothy O'Brien reported a notable success for the bazaar tables. Many unusual and lovely handmade gifts were on sale made by club members. Prizes of a huge cake and lovely plants were awarded during the evening.

PRINCIPAL AT OLD ROCHESTER RETIRES

The Old Rochester Regional School District announces with regret the retirement of Mr. Walter E. Bowman, Jr. as principal of the Old Rochester Regional High School, effective on August 1, 1963. The District is grateful to Mr. Bowman for his loyal and able service to the students and to the community.

Mr. Donald M Gavin

Replacing Mr. Bowman on August 1 will be Mr. Donald N. Gavin who has been appointed acting principal of the Old Rochester Regional High School. Mr.Gavin was appointed to this post with the warm endorsement of Mr. Bowman, with whom he has worked for the past two years, and upon the recommendation of Superintendent-elect Mr. Joseph C. Kunces. Mr. Gavin will be paid a salary of $9000. per year.

The board also announces regretfully the resignation of David S. Hagen, as Acting Superintendent of the Old Rochester Regional School District. Mr. Hagen's resignation becomes effective on September 1, 1963. The board appreciates the efficient manner in which Mr. Hagen has served the Old Rochester Regional

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESTO PRESS

Dear Sir:

I should like to take this opportunity to thank publicly all those concerned with the Citizens Scholarship Foundation. From its beginnings in nearby Fall River to the present, the Foundation has become an exemplary model which has been and will continue to be followed by many communities, I am sure. In this time when higher education has become so necessary, it is organizations such as this Foundation which give encouragement to the needy and deserving student.

Recently I was fortunate enough to receive one of the first annual awards of the Citizens Scholarship Foundation of Old Rochester Regional School District. I am very grateful to all concerned: especially I would like to thank Mr. Norman Cartmill, president; Dr. David Goodenough, chairman of the Awards Committee; and their fellow officers and co-workers respectively. Also, I thank the many workers and donors who helped so much to make this first attempt the great success that it was.

I know I speak for my fellow recipients as well as for myself when I say that we shall try to be worthy of the confidence which the communities have placed in us when giving these awards.

Sincerely,
Judith Hagemann

Center. She has studied at the University of Conn., Syracuse University and Boston Museum School of Art. She will teach adult and children's art at the Art Center this summer. The exhibit is a potpourri of children's art. Featured are several murals which show variety of materials, paint, mosaic, and three dimensional cut paper. Many colorful three dimensional works are to be seen, also paper mache masks, colorful mache animals, a range of puppets from cardboard, paper plates and mache. Most of the exhibit displays a wide variety and use of different materials. Some of the common media are crayon, paint, chalk, cut paper; others include a free use of scrap material and the newer art materials.

The Children's Art Festival is to be held in connection with registration for the summer art classes. There will be classes for children as well as adults. Mrs. Warren will accept registrations at the Art Center anytime between June 23 and June 27. The tuition is based on the cost of the classes without any profit to the Art Center and must accompany the registration. Classes will begin July 8.

Gail Vaitses, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Vaitses of Mattapoisett Neck, left by plane on Sunday, June 23rd, for an 8-week tour of Europe.

Gail graduated from Boston University's School of Public Relations and Communications and received a diploma from School of Modern Art on Commonwealth Avenue this June.

She will be accompanied on her trip by Miss Dorothy Krell of New York and Miss Carolyn Baldwin of Baltimore, Maryland, former roommates at Beaver College and Boston University.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaitses' son, Stephen, has received a commercial pilot's license from American Flyers Pilots School at Ardmore, Oklahoma. He is now taking a professional instrument rating course at Meacham Field, Forth Worth, Texas.

The American Flyers School graduates more pilots for the U. S. Airlines than all the other similar schools put together.

COURT OF AWARDS HELD

Mattapoisett Congregational Church parish hall was the scene of a court of awards for Mattapoisett Girl Scout Troops 29, 49 and 309. A ham supper preceded the awards, served at tables decorated with daisies.

Mrs. Harry G. Erhard, retiring neighborhood chairman, introduced the new chairman, Mrs. Gordon Larcom. Gifts were presented to the following leaders: Mrs. James W. Harris, presented by Scout Karen Liddell and Victoria Long; Mrs. Erhard, presented by Mrs. Larcom; Mrs. Milton Heuberger, presented by Mrs. Erhard. Pins were presented to Mrs. Conrad Pasbrig, Mrs. Robert Long and Mrs. Milton Thompson by Mrs. Harris. Gail Thompson accepted the pin for her mother who was absent.

Colors were advanced and retired by Gracia Hillman, Beverly Andrews, Ruth White, Marilyn Tinkham, Alice Valley, Evelyn Simpson, Sheila Andrade, Carol Hirons and Cynthia Haskell. The invocation was by Jane Wordell and Carolyn DeCosta.

Girls working for their seamstress badges modeled clothing made by them with Mrs. D. Preston Valley, instructor, as narrator. The girls were Deborah Yard, Alice Valley, Carol Hirons, Marilyn Tinkham, Marilyn Lewis, Jean Gregg, Christine Bertram, Krislyn Goodenough, Karen Liddell, Jane Harris, Denise Gaudiello, Beth Brown and Gail Thompson.

A singing skit, "The Lie", was presented by scouts of Troop 49. Taking part were Jane Wordell, Ann Silsby, Beverly Andrews, Carolyn DeCosta, Gracia Hillman, Carolyn Lewis, Joanne Peirce, Susan Reynard, Alice Valley, Evelyn Simpson, Carol Hirons, Muriel Costa, Susan Roylance and Valerie Randall.

MEMO
To Our Customers
SUBJECT:
ARE YOU PLANNING A TRIP?

For many of our customers this is the time of year when they get ready to make an extended trip by car. Naturally, we're anxious to help them enjoy as pleasant, economical and safe a journey as possible.

Just in case you're preparing for such a trip in the near future, here are some of the things we'd like to do to make certain your car will perform satisfactorily all the way there—and back.

- ✓ Change engine oil and replace oil filter element if change is due.
- ✓ Perform complete lubrication job (on all but "lubeless" cars).
- ✓ Examine tires, shock absorbers, suspension, steering and drive line parts for wear or damage.
- ✓ Check exhaust system for faulty muffler, pipes or clamps.
- ✓ Inspect condition of brake system and level of fluid in master cylinder.
- ✓ Check need for engine tune up.
- ✓ Clean top of battery and refill cells to proper level.
- ✓ Inspect condition and adjustment of V-belts.
- ✓ Check coolant level and pressure test radiator cap and cooling system.
- ✓ Examine windshield wiper blades for wear and refill washer reservoir with water and solvent.
- ✓ Replace any burned out bulbs or sealed beam units, re-aim headlamps if necessary.

May we make a service appointment for you right now? We'll do only the work that's really necessary—and our prices are competitive!
